Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Philippine Observer, Vol. 1 The purpose of the exhibit was to improve and standardize industrial education in the work of the schools. There were several thousand different pieces of furniture or other articles made by students. Most of these were for sale and were quickly picked up by purchasers. The exhibition was an education in itself. The perfection, the improved variety of furniture, wood work, embroidery, carving, vegetables, fruit, and what not cannot help but inspire every one with a desire to return to one s home and begin at once to raise the standards all along the line. In one place we read this: Given the finest woods in the world, People unaccustomed to modern tools, Frail houses with little furniture. The Problem: To teach the people how to make better houses and better furniture. Solution: 13 Trade Schools. 22 Manuel Training Schools. 206 Primary wood working Shops. 20,000 boys doing wood-work. This work will help to train the hand as well as the mind, to teach the dignity of labor, to place a means of livelihood in the hands of every deserving pupil as well as many older people. We are told that the Workshop is the center of instruction. Language, mathematics, science and drawing must revolve around it. In the department of agriculture were many kinds of vegetables of the latest and best variety. The schools in their little gardens are demonstrating to the people that a great improvement is possible in the raising of gulay. Every young person who reads this should become interested in growing the most possible on a given space. Write to the Bureau of Agriculture asking for...
