As As soon as the company begins ter assemble, they divide into different apartments; refreshments are immediately distributed, consisting of sherbets, sweetmeats, and chocolate: a chearfui and lively conversation is supported on a variety of pleasing subjects in which the prelate, the soldier, and the civilian, come in for a share, and the ladies contribute their part. In another apartment a more grave set are amused with cards, while a few gallant knightsy with the crimson insignia of chivalry on their breasts, divide themselves amongst the fair listeners, and the amorous glance is enlivened by sparkling eyes and every expression of feature: --while one echoes the soft murmurs of love, a delicate finger founds sounds the guitarre, and adds to its harmony with a song.--Each party is happy, no tiresome ceremony interrupts-their felicity, the very idea of jealousy is struck out of the rubric: wit and good humour are the principal pursuits, added to a chearful mind, unbent with every social attribute: --no plodding about politics or the debts of the nation.--Happy moments thus glide away imperceptibly, till the usual hour comes, and then every one retires in silence, pleased and contented!--Amongst a variety of entertaining subjects that are occasionally discussed in this...
