A Historical Review of Chinese Shipbuilding Viewed broadly, the shipbuilding development strategy chosen by CSSC during this early period was similar to that which had propelled Japan to remarkable shipbuilding successes in the 1950s - 60s and South Korea in the late 1970s - 90s. China targeted ship-building as a pillar industry for national economic development and growth in other heavy industrial sectors (such as steel); it leveraged labor cost advantages, imported critical technology and manufacturing best practices from world shipbuilding leaders, and targeted export sales as a means of obtaining hard currency to fuel further eco-8 Despite these general similarities, however, parallels with a Japa-nomic development. nese or...
