Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As an adult I tinkered with the idea that I might be able to express my words poetically. This volume is the result of that tinkering. Having had several of my pieces published made me a believer that I am a poet. I tell stories with my poems that let the reader know who I am and how I feel about each situation from my parents, to my past loves, and my true love. I added a few whimsical ideas and thoughts for a laugh or two. L H. Hoagland of Tazewell, Virginia, graduate of Southwest Virginia Community College, has won acclaim for her 8 mystery novels. She has written 6 nonfiction books and released a collection of prize winning short writings along with having many poems published. She is a retired public school employee and a mother of 2 sons.
