This fair and stainless thing I take To be my badge for virtues sake; Its ample strings that gird me round My constant cable-tow are found. And as securely they are tied So may true faith with me abide; And as I face the sunny South I pledge to God my Masons truth, That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I raise In memory of my Apprentice days. When on the checkered pavement wide, With guage and gavel well supplied, It kept my garments free from soil, Though laboring in a menial toil; And as I face the Golden West, I call my Maker to attest That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I lower--Its Prentice aid I need no more, For laws and principle! are given The Fellow Craft direct from heaven; To help the needy, keep a trust, Observe the precepts of the just; And as I face the darkened North I send this solemn promise forth. That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I doff--And though I take my apron off, And lay this stainless badge aside, Its teachings ever shall abide; That God hath given light divine That we may walk opposed to sin: That sympathy and brotherly love Are...
