A must-read in today's teaching world. - Geoffrey Smith, Director, Substitute Teaching Division of Required reading with a due date of immediately! -William Zimmerman, Iona College, Education Department Hilarious and touching. -Barbara Pressman, Author of Substitute Teaching from A to Z, Florida Atlantic University, College of Education Captures the terror and humor of the lone educator thrown overboard into a sea of students. -Peter Rudiak-Gould, author of Surviving Paradise A mid-life career change introduced me to a quirky profession where many employees receive no training, are given enormous responsibilities, solicit sex from minors, and suffer unfortunate events, like having their hair set on fire. The pay averages $14,400 per year. When author and teacher Frank McCourt wrote that teachers are the downstairs maid of professions, he tipped his hand. Like many educators, he had forgotten the substitute teachers in the sub-basement. Thus begins Sub Culture, a journalistic memoir that exposes a national crisis within education and offers solutions across the board. Journalist, mother and substitute teacher Carolyn Bucior challenges the status quo in this dusty...
