Government Accountability Office, 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)77547614 Excerpt: . . . identify what the caseworker should do and help the caseworkers develop a set of applicable skills. CFSA officials told us there is a shortage of health care providers to give necessary medical, dental, or mental health services to children in the agency's care. These shortages are not unique to the District's child welfare system, but they hinder CFSA's ability to meet a number of court-ordered requirements. For example, caseworkers told us that not having enough doctors and dentists to conduct screenings and examinations made it difficult to complete investigations or provide routine examinations within required time frames. Specifically, they told us that there is not a sufficient number of dentists in the District who provide services to CFSA's children. Furthermore, CFSA told us that in February 2006, the agency did a competitive request for proposals from all District medical providers for a comprehensive medical system of care, but received only one bid. While there may be a number of reasons for the lack of providers, CFSA officials...
