Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Work of the Nineteenth Year of the Pacific Garden Mission: Ending September 15th, 1896 September 15th closes another chapter in the history of Pacific Garden Mission. Three hundred and. sixty-five days have brought us to another anniversary, which marks the most wonderful record since the work began. Pen would fail to describe, or words express, the saving grace of God that has been manifested nightly, and the thousands of souls that have been rescued, and gone on their way rejoicing. As we review the work, and the goodness of God another year, our hearts are melted into tenderest gratitude, for His manifest presence, for continued health, and unabated prosperity. We enter upon the new year with large expectations, claiming His promises for our heritage. Perhaps only an eye witness could be convinced of the vast number of strangers that are passing through our cit, coming and going to the four quarters of the earth. Letters from Alaska, Mexico, South Africa, the extreme East and West are boundaries from whence we are receiving communications. From an audience of from 400 to 500 perhaps one-fourth are strangers who are passing through the city, or are among the wanderers who are going they know not where. We want to say, to the praise of God, that not a single night during the past year, has the interest abated without regard to temperature or surroundings. At the first peal of the organ there is an ingathering that lingers until the latest moment. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
